Welcome from the President

Bishop Dr. Varnie N. Fullwood, Sr. Founder & President of North Carolina Theological Seminary

It is with immense pleasure and immeasurable joy for us to welcome you to North Carolina Theological Seminary. We are blessed to have you with us, for you are getting ready to embark upon one of the most exciting decisions of your life. You are about to engage on a joyful and exhilarating journey.

NCTS is a prospering Bible college with a mission to help and train men and women to be effective disciples for Christ. God gave me a vision to start a program that would advance His kingdom through the in-depth and prayerful impartation of His Word. NCTS is available to pastors, church leaders and parishioners who desire to launch out into the “deep” things of God. It is through studying His Word with a hunger and thirst for greater understanding, under the tutelage and guidance of qualified instructors, that this is accomplished.

Exploring God’s call to ministry presents exciting prospects and decisions. Among the most important decision is the choice of a seminary where you will continue your preparation for a lifetime of service in the ministry.

At NCTS, you will study under a first-class faculty with a deep passion for the church. We believe that training ministers involves nurturing both mind and heart, placing a high priority on both spiritual formation and rigorous intellectual challenges. We combine seminar experiences with ministry-based learning to prepare students for service in God’s Kingdom.

We thank you for your interest and for applying. We are anticipating the great things that God has prepared for us, not only this year, but the years to come.

Sincerely,

Bishop Dr. V.N. Fullwood, Sr.

These visions that God placed on the heart of Bishop Fullwood have developed into the following ministries: V. N. TO: Presidents of Institutions Holding Religious Exempt Status

FROM: Corinna M. Robinson

DATE: October 15, 2015

RE: Annual Renewal of Religious Exempt Status

Your institution has been previously approved for religious exemption. This exemption makes it unnecessary for your school to seek authorization under the provisions of the Nonpublic Postsecondary Educational Institutions Act of 1990, O.C.G.A. 20-3-250.3. This law, allowing Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission (NPEC) to exempt certain institutions from the requirement for full authorization, reads in part as follows:

"An exemption may be granted for "Nonpublic, nonprofit, postsecondary educational institutions which demonstrate annually to the satisfaction of the commission that their purposes are solely to provide programs of study in theology, divinity, religious education, and ministerial training, and that they do not grant postsecondary degrees of a nonreligious nature."

The Georgia Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission (GNPEC) now requires online submission of your institution's required application and the transmission of documentation in support of this application. Please go to the Commission website (www.gnpec.org/exemption-for-religious-purposes) and follow the instructions for submitting an application.

Failure to file this report, for whatever reason, and to provide a copy of the current catalog and the annual fee by December 31, 2015 will result in the loss of your institution's religious exempt status. Should your institution lose its exempt status, the law requires that it discontinue operation, apply for full authorization, or re-apply for religious exemption and pay all applicable fees.

Should you have any questions, you may contact Ms. Pat Neri, the Standards Administrator responsible for religious exempt schools at patn@gnpec.org. We look forward to hearing from you.

Mission and Vision Statement

Mission Statement

The mission of the North Carolina Theological Seminary is to create an educational environment in which students may obtain foundational Biblical instruction, which will teach them to effectively “dissect” the Word of God. Ultimately, our mission is to help train men and women to be effective disciples for Christ. “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (II Timothy 2:15). In addition, it is our desire to equip each student through the teaching of the Bible, how to effectively apply the Word of God and His Biblical principals in their day to day walk, so that they may live victoriously, and in doing so draw others to Christ. “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 5:16).

Vision Statement

The vision of this college is to advance the Kingdom of God through the in-depth and prayerful impartation of His Word. Through obedience to His guidance and the support of a dedicated faculty and staff, this vision has come to pass. North Carolina Theological Seminary is available to pastors, church leaders, and parishioners who desire to launch out into the “deep” things of God. It is through studying His Word with a hunger and thirst for greater understanding, under the tutelage and guidance of qualified instructors that this is accomplished.

Overview of the North Carolina Theological Seminary:

North Carolina Theological Seminary (NCTS) is a Bible College divinely established and ordained of God as an aid in fulfilling the great Commission of the Kingdom of God, through the astute teaching of God's Word. The Apostle Paul writes in the epistle of II Tim 2:15; "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." NCTS provides a biblically based curriculum that enhances students' knowledge of the Word of God; challenging each one to seek a deeper relationship with God and a greater understanding of His Word. After undergoing a rigorous initial auditing process, the NCTS founder's credentials, curriculum, policies, and campus has been approved by the State of North Carolina University Governing Board and accredited as a certified Bible College. (Other states will be added)

North Carolina Theological Seminary hereby affirms and signify compliance with all items located in the policy of the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina with respect to religious exemption from licensure, legal reference G.S. 116-15. The Degree Programs of study offered by NCTS have been declared by the appropriate state authority exempt from the requirements for licensure, under provisions of North Carolina Statutes (G.S.) 116-15 (d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education. Exemption from licensure is not based upon any assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

NCTS is explicitly, a Bible College and is not certified as a "School of Arts". We have been fully licensed to provide a biblically based curriculum, exempt from pre-requisite and foundational courses such as Biology, Math, History, English, and Physical Science etc. The NCTS courses of study consist of biblical and theological disciplines only. Therefore, NCTS degrees are not "Arts" degrees and do not read as such. For example, an NCTS degree cannot read as "Associate of Arts in Theology;" but rather, it must read as "Associate of Theology Degree," "Bachelor of Biblical Studies Degree," "Master of Divinity Degree," "Master of Christian Ministry Degree," "Doctorate of Theology Degree" etc. NCTS Degrees are certified by the state education governing board as Post-Secondary degree because of not being a school of arts. NCTS is required to submit an in-depth report to the Governing Board of the University of North Carolina annually in order to maintain its licensure and certification privileges.

In addition, North Carolina Theological Seminary is listed on the North Carolina University web page along with all of the Universities of North Carolina, including North Carolina State University, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill etc. NCTS is also an associate member of Transworld Accrediting Commission (TAC). This is one of the largest independent religious accreditations in the nation. Pastors such as Dr. (Apostle) Frederick Price of Ever Increasing Faith Ministries, Dr. Creflo Dollars Ministries, Kenneth Hagan of Rhema Ministries and many other distinguished, renowned men and women are affiliated with Transworld Accrediting Commission.

Transworld Accrediting Commission and Accrediting Commission International are not governed by the National Accreditation Commission and may operate its schools independently of the stipulations sanctioned for schools governed by the Federal Government. In short, the government cannot dictate the curriculum or enrollment of these Bible colleges. As such, NCTS and TAC schools do not qualify to receive any grants or financial assistance through the Federal Government. (Which is consistent with the separation of church and state.) Transworld Accreditation Commission, because of its independence from the National Accreditation Commission and the U.S. Department of Education, is at liberty to teach a curriculum that is authentic and unwavering from the truth of God's Word, such as the virgin birth of Jesus Christ, the abomination of homosexuality, the second coming of Christ, and other biblically based truths that government mandated colleges cannot. Transworld Accreditation has the liberty to refuse enrollment of individuals who do not meet or refuse to comply with the biblical principles governing the colleges.

The vision for North Carolina Theological Seminary is to train and educate men and women in such a way that they will be able to adequately, fulfill the great commission. As with any college, NCTS may not be for everyone. But it is for a population who is seeking a depth in God that will prepare them for Kingdom ministry. We are in this world, but we are not of this world. We are of the Kingdom and must be able to live for the Kingdom here on earth. If you are looking for a college that is designed to prepare you for ministry, with an accelerated degree program, at less than a third of the cost of the nationally accredited colleges, but has the same quality curriculum, then this could very well be the perfect school for you.

North Carolina Theological Seminary has accelerated programs in which students meet one night per week for two hours. It is designed specifically for home study with a minimal of two hours of classroom assistance and lecturing from the instructors. NCTS has the same quality curriculum as all other nationally accredited Bible Colleges, and its instructors must be certified and approved based upon the criteria specified by Transworld Accreditation Commission.

NCTS meets special needs:

- a. For pastors, ministry leaders, and men and women who are bi-vocational and do not have the time to go to school and sit in a class room for hours each week.
- b. For those who do not have the time to travel for distance learning but have up to 10 hours per week to study at home.
- c. For those who do not have the finances to attend a nationally accredited college that can cost up to $10,000.00 per semester or more.

North Carolina Theological Seminary- Offering you an opportunity to study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needed not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (II Timothy 2:15) It's important for you to understand that you can't curse what God has already blessed. "Thine are We!"

North Carolina Theological Seminary
Administrative Policies

Our Program Basis

It is the purpose of the North Carolina Theological Seminary (Administration – Main Campus) to provide continued education programs to students who are unable to attend full-time classes on the Main Campus. This can be accomplished through our external studies program. We believe that we offer the finest Christian education available in a streamlined fashion.

Credit Hours

The minimum of two hours per week in the classroom setting and home study expectations are equivalent to the credit hours required for each course of Degree study.

We have purposely abbreviated our requirements for graduate and post –graduate degrees in an effort to hold the tuition to a minimum and allow the busy minister ample time to complete his or her desired field of study. Our experienced staff and faculty have labored untiringly over textbooks and materials, separating arduous minor information from major academic information. We believe that upon review of the various programs, students will see we have streamlined the supporting areas of study by offering the same necessary information in condensed version for less reading and research of materials. It is our position that the same information can be obtained and retained by reading one book rather than three, provided it is the right book.

What We Believe

1. We believe the Bible to be inspired, the only infallible, authoritative, inerrant Word of God (2nd Timothy 3:16, 2nd Peter 1:21).
2. We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Genesis 1:1, Matthew 28:19, John 10:30).

3. We believe in the deity of Christ (John 10:33), His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14, Matthew 1:23, Luke 1:35), His sinless life (Hebrews 4:15, 7:26), His miracles (John 2:11), His vicarious and atoning death (1 Corinthians 15:3, Ephesians 1:7, Hebrews 2:9), His resurrection (John 11:25, 1 Corinthians 15:4), His ascension to the right hand of the Father (Mark 16:19), and His personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11, Revelation 19:11).

4. We believe in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature, and that people are justified on the single ground of faith in the shed blood of Christ, and that only by God's grace and through faith are we saved (John 3:16-21; John 5:24; Romans 3:23, 5:8, 9; Ephesians 2:8- 10; Titus 3:5).

5. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life, and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation (John 5:28, 29).

6. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:9; 1 Corinthians 12:12, 13; Galatians 3:26-28).

7. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by who's indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life (Romans 8:13, 14; 1 Corinthians 3:16, 6:19, 20; Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).

Staff and Faculty

Any corporation, institution or government is only as good as its people and they are its most valuable asset. The North Carolina Theological Seminary College has been richly blessed with quality staff and faculty. From the office of its president to the administrators and professors, you find each individual ready and willing to assist every request. Our people are dedicated and loyal to the task of promoting God's Kingdom through quality Biblical education. There is no limitation as to NCTS's enrollment, as we have access to instructors as needed. Nevertheless, we generally seek to enroll a student-teacher ratio at a maximum of 20:1.

Curriculum and Reference Materials

North Carolina Theological Seminary Student Appeals, Complaints, and Grievances

The purpose of this document is to outline avenues by which students may make appeals or submit complaints or grievances with North Carolina Theological Seminary (NCTS). It is broken into sections that address categories of student issues and grievances. It is our aim, with this guide, to provide students with general information and specific contact strategies. We are here to help and aid our students to obtain the best outcome possible. NCTS is committed to ensuring that all students at all times have the right to execute a complaint or grievance which they deem necessary and important without fear of retaliation of any sort or any other adverse consequence as a result of doing so.

The recommended general strategy is to first contact the specific individual(s) most directly connected with the issue at hand unless there are good reasons for not doing so such as a desire to maintain anonymity (private). The Student's Policy Manual will generally provide contact information for all the campuses from which an individual can determine where to go to make a complaint or submit a grievance.

Section I. Issues wherein the student wishes to remain anonymous with respect to an instructor or staff member or where the student otherwise chooses to avoid directly discussing the problem with that individual.

- If, for whatever reason, a student does not want to personally or directly contact an instructor or staff member to discuss a complaint or grievance, the student should begin with the next highest level of responsibility, which would be the Provost, then President.
- The student can request an appointment to meet with the President and/or send a written description of the issue or problem and request that their identity be kept confidential – that request will be honored.

Section II. Issues about academic advising, Grades, exam procedures, excused absences, class policies, etc.

- Begin with your direct Instructor – all academic counseling begins with your instructor.
- Individual faculty staff has primary authority and responsibility in all these areas and are charged with carrying out those responsibilities in a professional manner.
- Issues of disagreement about whether, for example, a given essay was worth, say, a B or an A is decided solely by the individual's instructor in charge.

Section III. Issues about faculty performance or faculty behavior. If reasonable and appropriate, students should begin with the individual faculty person to discuss and resolve the problem together, if possible. If this direct effort fails, students may then contact the Office of Administration and set up an appointment with the President. There is a process that requires a written filing of complaints and grievances and students.

- A student may individually choose to take the issue to the President's office (910) 590-3131.
- Appeals by students regarding academic decisions made by their instructor may be referred to the President for review if there is a complaint.
- This step typically constitutes the end of the official appeals and grievance process; in other words, at the President's level, this should be the conclusion of the matter.
- If the faculty behavior in question involves allegations of sexual harassment or discrimination students should contact the Office of Administration and submit it in writing.

- If the allegations involve discrimination or other civil rights issues, students may also contact the Office of Administration and submit it in writing.
- COUNSELING: In the case whether faculty or student could benefit from counseling services, the Provost can assist in assuring their needs are met and appropriate resources are accessed.
- If the allegations relate to disabilities, students should contact the Office of Administration and submit it in writing.

Section IV. Issues about course content, teaching methodology, etc.

- Students should first discuss the issue with the individual faculty person to resolve the problem there, if possible.
- Faculty members have primary authority and responsibility in all these areas.

Section V. Issues about academic probations, suspensions, etc. In the event that there is an Academic probation, suspension, etc. due to lack of assignment failure, this is handled through the administrative office. This process requires written communication. Readmission decisions will be made upon re-application of the student and decided upon by the Provost and/or President of NCTS.

Section VI. Issues regarding academic integrity. Academic integrity is very important. We use a practical process which resolve disputes over acts of academic dishonesty (plagiarism, etc.). In the event that this occurs, you may contact the Office of Administration if you have questions about the process or how to file an appeal.

Section VII. Issues about transcripts, credits, degree classification, etc. For general questions of this type, please contact our Chief Executive Administrator at the Office of Administration at (910) 590-3131.

Section VIII. Issues about class availability, times, etc. Contact the Office of Administration at (910) 590-3131.

Section IX. Issues regarding discrimination and/or sexual harassment/civil rights violations/disabilities/health. Contact the Office of Administration at (910) 590-3131.

Section X. Issues about tuition, fees, and other charges. Student financial billing is handled by the Office of Administration. For appeals regarding tuition or any other fees, call (910) 590-3131.

If students are unable to resolve a complaint through the institution's grievance procedures, they may review the Student Complaint Policy, complete the Student Complaint Form (PDF) located on the State Authorization webpage at <https://www.northcarolina.edu/stateauthorization>, and submit the complaint to studentcomplaint@northcarolina.edu or to the following mailing address:
